

CLARE
COLLEGE
UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

Data Protection Statement

How we use your personal information

Staff and senior members

This statement explains how the College ('we' and 'our') handles and uses information we collect about our staff and senior members ('you' and 'your'). For these purposes, 'staff' is intended to include employees, workers, casual workers, and contractors (eg undergraduate supervisors, ad hoc or temporary maintenance, kitchen or catering staff etc). In broad terms, we use your data to manage your employment and/or membership with the College, including your role and the performance of it, how we support you as an employer, and how you are paid, as well as other statutory requirements.

The controller for your personal information is Clare College, Trinity Lane, Cambridge, CB2 1TL. The person within the College responsible for data protection at the time of issue, and the person who is responsible for monitoring compliance with relevant legislation in relation to the protection of personal data, is the College's Data Protection Lead, Miss Emma Easterbrook, dataprotection@clare.cam.ac.uk

Unless otherwise stated, the legal basis for processing your personal data is that it is necessary for the performance of the employment contract or membership agreement we hold with you, or for statutory purposes (eg processing your monthly salary, tax and pension contributions), and/or as a user of the College's facilities.

How your data is used by the College

Your data is used by us for a number of purposes, including:

A. Supporting your employment and your performance in your role

Personal data includes:

- (i) Personal details, including name, contact details (phone, email, postal, both work and personal) and photograph;
- (ii) Your current and any previous role descriptions;*
- (iii) Your current and any previous contracts of employment and related correspondence;*
- (iv) Any occupational health assessments and medical information you have provided, and related work requirements; and*
- (v) Your training and development qualifications, requests and requirements.

B. Ensuring that you have the right to work for the College

Personal data includes:

- (i) Your recruitment information (including your original application form and associated information submitted at that time);
- (ii) Other data relating to your recruitment (including your offer of employment and related correspondence, references we took up on your appointment, and any pre-employment assessment of you); and*
- (iii) Evidence of your right to work in the UK (eg copies of your passport).

C. Paying and rewarding you for your work

Personal data includes:

- (i) Your bank details;
- (ii) Details of your preferred pension scheme;
- (iii) Your current and previous salary and other earnings (eg maternity pay, overtime), and the amounts you have paid in statutory taxes; and*
- (iv) Correspondence between you and the College, and between members and staff of the College, relating to your pay, pension, benefits and other remuneration.*

In addition, we maintain records of your use or take-up of any benefit schemes and/or facilities provided by us (eg catering and healthcare), which we collate and monitor including to review the effectiveness of these staff benefits. The legal basis for this processing is that it is in our legitimate interest to ensure that any staff benefit schemes and/or facilities represent good value for money to both you and us, and to ensure that you do not overuse your entitlements.

D. Administering HR-related processes, including records of absences and regular appraisals of your performance and, where necessary, investigations or reviews into your conduct or performance

Personal data includes:

- (i) Records of your induction programme and its completion;
- (ii) Records of your performance appraisals with your line manager;
- (iii) Records, where they exist, of any investigation or review into your conduct or performance;*
- (iv) Records of absences from work (including but not limited to annual leave entitlement, sickness leave, parental leave and compassionate leave); and*
- (v) Correspondence between you and the College, and between members and staff of the College, regarding any matters relating to your employment and/or membership and any related issues (including but not limited to changes to duties, responsibilities and benefits, your retirement, resignation or exit from the College and personal and professional references provided by the College to you or a third party at your request).*

E. Maintaining an emergency contact point for you

Personal data includes details of your preferred emergency contact, including their name, relationship to you and their contact details.*

F. Monitoring equality and diversity within the College

Personal data includes information relating to your age, nationality, gender, marital status, religion or beliefs, sexual orientation, disability, and ethnicity.*

G. Disclosing personal information about you to external organisations, as permitted or required by law

If you have concerns or queries about any of these purposes, or how we communicate with you, please contact us at the address given below.

Data marked with an * relate to information provided by you, or created in discussion and agreement with you. Other data and information is generated by the College or, where self-evident, provided by a third party.

We would not monitor social media sites for any personal data relating to you, unless we believed there was a legitimate interest for us to do so (eg monitoring compliance with an agreed plan, such as a homeworking agreement) and only if we inform you we might do this in advance. Consequently, we do not routinely screen your social media profiles but, if aspects of these are brought to our attention and give rise to concerns about your conduct, we may need to consider them.

We also operate CCTV on our sites, which will capture footage. The College also has a CCTV Policy.

For certain posts, we may use the Disclosure and Barring Services (DBS) and Disclosure Scotland to help assess your suitability for certain positions of trust. If this is the case, we will make this clear to you in separate correspondence. Certificate and status check information is only used for this specific purpose, and we comply fully with the DBS code of Practice regarding the correct use, handling, storage, retention and destruction of certificates and certificate information. We recognise that it is a criminal offence to pass this information on to anyone who is not entitled to receive it.

Who we share your data with

For staff and senior members we would normally publish (on our website and elsewhere) your name, photograph (if you have provided one), your email and College contact phone number and basic biographical information relating to your College and University posts.

We share your personal information where necessary and appropriate across the collegiate University. The University and its partners (including all of the Colleges) have a data sharing protocol to govern the sharing of staff and members of the College. This is necessary because they are distinct legal entities. The parties may share any of the above categories of personal information, and the agreement can be viewed in full at

Personal data sharing agreement | Office of Intercollegiate Services \(cam.ac.uk\)

Any transmission of information between partners is managed through agreed processes that comply with UK data protection legislation.

We share relevant personal data with our sub-contracting agents (catering and health and safety) and with relevant government agencies (eg HMRC) and your pension provider. Information is not shared with other third parties without your written consent, other than your name, role and employment contact details which are made publically available. Generally, personal data is not shared outside of the European Economic Area.

We hold all information for the duration of your employment and for seven years after the end of your employment or cessation of your membership. This includes:

- (i) *Personal details, including name and your preferred personal contact details (if we still have these);
- (ii) Your previous salaries and other earnings, pensions and the amounts you have paid in statutory taxes;
- (iii) Records of your performance appraisals with your line manager;
- (iv) Records, where they exist, of any investigation or review into your conduct or performance;
- (v) Your reasons for leaving and any related correspondence; and
- (vi) Any references we have written subsequent to your employment with us.

Those marked with an * relate to information provided by you, or created in discussion and agreement with you.

We reserve the right to retain the personal data longer than the periods stated above, where it becomes apparent that there is a need to do so – for example, in the event of a major health or personal injury incident, records may need to be kept for up to forty years.

After seven years, or longer where it becomes apparent to do so, we retain a small subset of personal data for the lifetime of the College after your relationship with the College ends and it is stored in a permanent archive:

- (i) Your full name and title; and
- (ii) Your job title(s) or College affiliation(s) and the corresponding dates of employment/membership.

The exception is for Fellows whether or not they are a member of Staff or a senior member for the purposes of this Data Protection Statement. After ten years the following are stored in a permanent archive:

- (i) Pre-employment checks (eg evidence of qualifications);
- (ii) References and supporting documentation for successful applications;
- (iii) Contracts;
- (iv) Job descriptions/person specifications;
- (v) Completion of induction process;
- (vi) Changes in terms and conditions;
- (vii) Records documenting remuneration and rewards;
- (viii) Correspondence regarding sabbaticals;

- (ix) Records documenting termination of employment; and
- (x) Leavers' List.

Your rights

You have the right: to ask us for access to, rectification or erasure of your personal information; to restrict processing (pending correction or deletion); to object to communications; and to ask for the transfer of your personal information electronically to a third party (data portability).

Some of these rights are not automatic, and we reserve the right to discuss with you why we might not comply with a request from you to exercise them.

Failure to provide the information reasonably requested of you may result in disciplinary action taken by the College, which could ultimately lead to your dismissal from employment.

If you have questions or concerns about your personal information, or how it is used, please speak to the relevant member of College Staff in the first instance; and/or the College's Data Protection Lead using the details above. If you need further guidance, or have any concerns about the College's response, please contact the Data Protection Officer for the Cambridge colleges by email at college.dpo@ois.cam.ac.uk, or via the Office of Intercollegiate Services Ltd, 12B King's Parade, Cambridge, CB2 1SJ.

If you remain unhappy with the way your information is being handled, or with the response received from us (including from the Data Protection Officer for the Cambridge colleges), you have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office at Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, SK9 5AF (Information Commissioner's Office \(ICO\)).
