

FRIENDS OF CLARE MUSIC

Clare College has for many generations fostered one of the world's most celebrated musical environments.

We continue to build on this legacy with an unrivalled programme for our student community, offering the very highest standards of music making. Clare College continues to attract applications from some of the country's finest young instrumentalists, singers, composers, conductors and musicologists, many of whom go on to enjoy extremely successful careers on the international stage. The Choir of Clare College is one of the world's leading undergraduate choirs, engaged in an enriching programme of services, concerts, broadcasts, educational work, and recordings.

By joining the Friends of Clare Music scheme your donation helps us to continue to strive for such unparalleled opportunities to our talented and hard-working undergraduates. With your support we can be confident of delivering world-class musical excellence to the Clare musicians of today and of the future.

Graham Ross
Fellow and Director of Music

“Clare let me breathe, discover and give all of myself to music.”

Robin Ticciati

“If it weren't for Clare I wouldn't be the singer I am today.”

Elin Manahan-Thomas

“Clare Choir means week after week of breathtaking performances, music-making of the highest quality.”

Andrew Manze

Clare College continues to offer one of the most ambitious and stimulating musical environments for today's undergraduates.

By becoming a Friend of Clare Music, you can help us to continue to strive for musical excellence for the generations of Clare musicians past, present, and future.
